

Asks $1 Billion Hike in SS Tax for Health Plan

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today sent Congress a new and urgent plea for health insurance for the aged, "self-financed" by a $1 billion boost in Social Security taxes.

In a special health message urging lawmakers to bring the miracles of modern medicine within reach of all Americans, Kennedy also proposed:

1. A three-year, nationwide immunization drive to stamp out polio, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus, with Uncle Sam footing the whole bill for vaccine for every child under 5.

2. Federal loans to help build and equip centers for group practice by doctors and dentists, to stretch the supply of medical skills and improve the quality of care—especially in small towns.

3. New and expanded federal outlays totaling $182 million for mental health, control of pollution, medical research and other programs.

Two new White House bills were due to reach Congress right after the message—the mass-vaccination plan and a broadened governmental attack on air and water pollution and radiation hazards.

"We can now save one out of every three victims of cancer," Kennedy told lawmakers who are just now grappling with some of his earlier health proposals.

"Full prevention of many forms of heart disease seems increasingly within our reach," he added.

"The discovery and widespread use of tranquilizing drugs in the past six years has resulted in an unprecedented reduction of 32,000 patients in the census of our state mental hospitals."

"But far more needs to be done."

The $182 million hike in appropriation requests includes $35 million for the immunization drive, but not the costs of another program close to Kennedy's heart—an attack on mental retardation in children.

His panel on mental retardation will make its report by the end of the year, Kennedy said. With it in hand he will offer a program to discover, treat and prevent the

Ruling on State Printing Won't Be Appealed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Secretary of State Nancy Hall said today she would open new bids March 30 on $988,000 worth of state printing contracts voided by the Arkansas Supreme Court Monday in the Parkin case.

Mrs. Hall said she would advertise for new bids Wednesday. Her decision means state agencies, which have run short of printing supplies because of the litigation, can get fresh supplies about the first week in April.

Attorneys for both sides in the controversial case said Monday they would not seek further court action. The Supreme Court invalidated 15 contracts held by Parkin Printing Co. because its president, Harry W. Parkin, is a member of the state Highway Commission.

Arkansas Printing and Lithographing Co. filed suit contending that Parkin couldn't hold the contracts because its president, Harry W. Parkin, is a member and chairman of the state Highway Commission. Arkansas Printing asked that it gets some of the contracts.

Pulaski chancellor Murray Reed said Parkin couldn't hold the contracts and the Supreme Court agreed. Both courts refused to award any of the contracts to Arkansas Printing.

Parkin has 17 days in which to file a motion for a Supreme Court rehearing, but his attorneys said in a letter to Mrs. Hall Monday that this will not be done. The court decision does not take effect for 17 days.

Parkin said Monday he had not made up his mind on whether to stay on the commission and lose the state contracts, or quit the commission and bid on them again.

Algiers Rebels Reportedly Okay Pact

TRIPOLI, Libya (AP)—The Algerian rebel parliament has accepted a peace agreement with France to end the 7½-year Algerian war, well informed sources said today.

The sources said the National Council for Algerian Revolution, the rebel parliament, met here today to draft an announcement of its acceptance of the accord worked out by French and rebel representatives in secret negotiations in Switzerland.

But the sources said the announcement would not be made public until after the Algerian leaders leave Tripoli. The rebel council has been discussing the peace agreement for the past five days in Tripoli.

The French government already has approved the agreement, which calls for a cease-fire, a transitional period during which a self-determination referendum will be held in Algeria, and guarantees for the European minority in Algeria, French use of the naval base at Mers-el-Kebir outside Oran, and French interests in the Sahara oil fields.

In preparation for announcement of the agreement and the anticipated violent reaction from the Algerian people, French troops are being moved to the Sahara.

Attending the District Wesleyan Service Guild meeting in Ashdown Sunday were Mrs. James McLarty, Mary Louise Copeland, Mrs. E. R. Brown, Mrs. Glenice Porter, Miss Troy Hammons, Mrs. Roy Stephenson and Mrs. J. W. Perkins. Also over the weekend attending the Jaycee-Jaycette state board meeting in Camden were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Denville Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Renard, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Byers and Mr. and Mrs. Don Fuller.

According to the Experiment Station report some 2.59 inches of rain flooded this section during last night. This was recorded at 8 a.m. and it continued raining here during the day.

At Millsap College Joe Crain of Hope has been elected G.M.C. of Kappa Sigma fraternity and will serve during the spring semester. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Crain.

State Hit by Ice, Rain, More Severe Weather Predicted

Palace Hit by Bombs in S. Viet Nam

By TONY ESCODA

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Two South Vietnamese air force fighter-bombers bombed, rocketed and strafed Saigon's presidential palace today in an unsuccessful attempt to kill President Ngo Dinh Diem or members of his family who exert a strong influence on his government.

Two hours after the attack—which left one wing of the Independence Palace in smoldering ruins—the 61-year-old anti-Communist president broadcast over Radio Saigon that "thanks to divine protection I myself and my close collaborators were not in danger."

By his close collaborators Diem meant his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, and Nhu's wife, who acts as first lady for the bachelor president. Critics have repeatedly accused all three of running the government as a family dictatorship.

The Nhu lived in the wing of the palace which was bombed out. A palace source reported that Mrs. Nhu was injured slightly on one arm. Also in the palace, the source said, was another brother of Diem, Roman Catholic Archbishop Ngo Dinh Thuc, who had come to Saigon from his residence in Hue for medical treatment.

Diem was the target of a short-lived uprising by five paratrooper battalions 15 months ago, but today's air attack appeared to be an independent, isolated assault by a few anti-Diem pilots rather than a large-scale plot against the U.S.-supported regime. There was no move to follow up the air attack on the ground and no reports of rebellion by government forces elsewhere in the country.

Diem said loyal armed forces had the situation "completely under control throughout the national territory."

A government radio newscast said one of the attacking planes—identified as AD6 Skyraiders supplied South Viet Nam's air force by the United States—was shot down near the coast and its officer pilot was captured. Military sources in Saigon said two LSTs of the Viet Nam navy shot the plane down.

Casualties from the attack on the palace were not known immediately, but several wounded palace guards were loaded into ambulances.

In Washington U.S. officials said first reports listed one dead and two hurt in the air assault on the cream and yellow palace. They said none of the 4,000 American military personnel and civilians in South Viet Nam were involved.

Astronauts to Get the Works

NEW YORK (AP)—The package of gratitude this city will present John H. Glenn Jr. and his six fellow astronauts Thursday will include ticker tape, firehoof salutes and thousands of holidaying school kids.

These, plus the formal welcomes of city fathers and the cheers of the city's millions, may add up to the greatest celebration of its type ever staged here, city officials said.

Li. Col. Glenn, the Marine who became the nation's first astronaut to orbit the globe, will be accompanied by his family—as will the six other American space-men.

Cold Stings Areas in Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Polar air drove temperatures to record lows in northern sections of the midcontinent today and a new snow storm built up power in the Rockies.

Heavy rains caused flooding in Kentucky and more rain was predicted. The frigid air stung an area from the northern and central Rockies eastward through the Upper Mississippi Valley.

Powers Lake in northwestern North Dakota, had an unofficial low of —44 degrees. Bismarck, N.D., had —26, a record low for the date. Bismarck's previous low of —24 was set in 1951.

Western Montana had numerous readings in the —30 range. Bozidari, Minn., recorded —29 and International Falls, Minn., —28.

The latest in a steady parade of late winter storms spread snow from the central Rockies into the central Plains and there were indications it would move into parts of Missouri, Iowa, and southern Minnesota.

South of the main belt, sleet and snow hit Oklahoma with accumulations of 2 to 5 inches forecast. Glaze and snow warnings were issued for south, central and eastern Oklahoma.

Water rationing was ordered at Cadiz in western Kentucky after the Little River flooded the municipal pumping station. Flood waters stood four feet deep in downtown Inez and Salyersville, Ky., and telephone lines were out.

More than a dozen state and federal roads were closed in central and eastern Kentucky by water, earth and rock slides.

Heavy rains and weekend thaw also caused minor flooding in Indiana where rivers rose faster than expected. The high water closed a number of highways.

The subzero cold covered parts of eight states—Montana, Colorado, Wyoming, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa and in Minnesota. Omaha's —8 reading broke the old record for the date.

The snow storm which hit the Midwest Sunday and Monday moved into the Northeast with falls of one to two inches during a six-hour period Monday night in New England. Snow flurries continued in the Great Lakes region and the upper Ohio Valley.

South of the snow and cold regions, warm moist air from the south collided with the Arctic air from the north, producing moderate to heavy thundershowers in Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas and northern Mississippi. Unseasonably warm weather continued in most of the Southeast.

Light snow powdered areas in Utah and northern Arizona. Temperatures dropped below freezing from New England through the Great Lakes southward into Oklahoma and northern Texas and northwest into the Pacific Northwest. The 40s and 50s prevailed along the Southwest border and the 60s along the Gulf Coast and in Florida.

Money to Colleges

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sperry and Hutchinson Co., a national distributor of trading stamps, has given $30,000 to the Arkansas Foundation of Associated Colleges. The funds will be divided among Arkansas College, Ozarks, Harding, Hendrix, John Brown, Ouachita and Southern Baptist.

Storm Alert in Southeast, Ice Hits Northwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Weather Bureau socked Arkansas with an ice storm warning and a severe weather alert today as a cold wave spawned sleet, snow and freezing rain in the northwest section of the state.

The alert came on the heels of a weekend of turbulent weather during which heavy rains sent rivers near or above flood stage and flooded several highways.

The ice storm alert, issued by the Little Rock Weather Bureau, called for snow, sleet and freezing rain in west Arkansas today, extending into the northeast section tonight and extending through Wednesday night.

The severe weather bulletin, issued at Kansas City, said thundershowers which concentrated over northwest Arkansas during the day were due to intensify as they moved eastward, raising the possibility of severe thundershowers, hail and a few tornadoes along 60 miles on either side of a line from 50 miles south southeast of El Dorado to Jackson, Tenn.

The alerted area includes all of Arkansas east and south of a line from Hampton to Osceola.

The cold wave, meanwhile, was due to intensify also. Temperatures ranging as low as 5 degrees were forecast for north Arkansas tonight.

Winter's latest stroke followed a weekend of thundershowers, and generally heavy rains.

Fayetteville and Harrison reported sleet today and Harrison had accompanying freezing rain. Two Boone County schools closed. Thundershowers skipped over the state Monday and many areas had heavy fog Monday night.

Minimum temperatures plunged below freezing in the northwest section with a low of 24 degrees reported at Harrison. Fayetteville reported 25 degrees.

The heaviest reported rainfall was at Greenbrier and Jesselville. Each had 2.5 inches. Other large measurements for the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. included: Texarkana 1.76 inches, Little Rock 1.67, Walnut Ridge 1.42 and El Dorado 1.25.

Streets at both Harrison and Fayetteville iced over rapidly and some highways in the area were slick. No roads were closed immediately, however.

Besides the light snow in the northwest, today's forecast called for cloudy skies and colder temperatures with occasional rain and scattered thundershowers, mainly in the southeast.

Missionary at Garrett Baptist

Surprise Raid Nabs Three for Gambling

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three men caught in a surprise gambling raid southwest of here Saturday are to appear in Municipal Court today charged with keeping a gambling house and betting on horse races.

Taken into custody were A. L. Finley and George M. Dutton of North Little Rock and Ralph Baker of Little Rock.

They were released under $600 bond each and ordered to appear in court today.

Four state troopers, joined by the foreman of the Pulaski Grand Jury, swooped in on the concrete-block building and found betting paraphernalia after breaking down a door.

The front of the building had been set up as a cafe, officers said, but apparently had never been used.

In the back room officers found the men, four telephones, a dismantled dice table and racing forms, scratch sheets and betting slips.

Louis D. Riffe, the jury foreman, said he had obtained a search warrant Tuesday from Pros. Atty. John Jernigan after watching the building for two years.

Riffe said he called State Police Saturday and asked for help in the raid.

Outstanding Men

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Junior Chamber of Commerce tapped Dr. Barry Lee Moore Jr., El Dorado, as the outstanding young Arkansas man of the year here Saturday night.

Harris McGinnis of Gould was named outstanding young farmer.

Chapter 20

Addie looked at Emily's flushed, downcast face, and obediently stood still, while she buttoned his shoes.

"Where's Momma, Emily?" "Takin' care of Miss Jenny." Memory returned to Addie. "Oh, she came home then."

"Yes, she came," Emily secured the last button.

"Where'd she been? Is she sick again? Is that why Momma's..." "Stop asking questions, Master Addie!" Emily interrupted, straightening his bed with hurried tugs. "And get your school books ready. I've no time this day."

"Is-is it her?" Addie asked. "The witch lady?"

"Well, if it's Miss Maggy you're meanin', you're in the right of it!" Emily put her hands on her hips and shook her head. "Saints! But she's in a rare takin' this day! Turnin' the house upside down. Every room to be cleaned."

"Tis my belief she's seekin' a way to keep us from sayin' a word about..." She stopped. "Now then, Master Addie, you be off to Mr. Matthew."

Addie picked up his books. "Don't let her frighten you, Emily," he reassured her. "Momma says she isn't really a witch."

Emily smiled, her first real smile, and Addie felt better.

But at Cousin Matthews door, Briggs told him, in a worried way, that Mr. Matthew wasn't well, and

Human Award Goes to Rockefeller

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Winthrop Rockefeller of Morrilton, Ark. received the first annual "Torch of Liberty Human Relations Award of the anti-defamation league of B'nai B'rith here Saturday night for service to Arkansas.

Rockefeller told the group, in accepting the award, that the "black eye" the country received in 1957 from actions by Gov. Orval E. Faubus has been forgotten because mistakes have been corrected.

"Faubus is the best known governor in the United States," Rockefeller said. Rockefeller's brother, Nelson A. Rockefeller, is governor of New York.

Faubus called out the national guard during the Little Rock integration crisis and federal troops later were brought in to enforce a federal court order.

Actions by Faubus, Rockefeller said, hurt the nation immeasurably.

Rockefeller's remarks were addressed to the league's regional board.

Grandma Wants to Run the Show

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: What can I do with a grandma, my husband's mother, who barges in without so much as a knock, and takes over the care of our little girl?

At the start my husband's folks couldn't have been nicer, especially when they discovered I was expecting a baby. Once it arrived I had the uncomfortable feeling of being invaded. Grandma would drag her sisters and other relatives in unannounced to see our baby at all hours. One day she walked in with a sister, declaring it wasn't me but baby they came to see.

Before I could open my mouth, they rushed in the nursery, grabbed baby, who was sound asleep and began waltzing her around, explaining they just wanted to hold her! I hoped that as baby grew older, the novelty would wear off but things have got progressively worse.

The crowning touch came this week when she took baby to a parade. I protested and tried pleasantly to get across the idea that we both loved her but just didn't like her possessive attitude toward our child. She flew into a rage and now has my father-in-law whom I love dearly, angry too. They feel that so long as they do us the favor of caring for the baby, they have the right to do as they please with her. We don't want a spoiled baby or one who will grow up playing one set of over-indulgent grandparents. — Frustrated Daughter-in-law

Dear Frustrated: Family problems should always be handled by blood relations. Your husband, not you, is the one to talk to his mother. The rearing of baby is as much his responsibility as yours. However, for the next few years, your place is home with her. Once you demonstrate this, you'll have no further trouble.

Dear Helen: My 22-year-old brother bosses me as if he was my father. It's been so ever since Dad and Mom separated and she took us four kids. I am 17 but my brother treats me like I was two, tells me when to go to bed and when to get up. I said last night,

"Never mind. You'll live," Hilda said, hardheartedly. Jenny smiled faintly and sheepishly. "I guess I'll catch it, today," she observed, "but I don't care."

Hilda looked down at her, halfway between amusement and worry. Jenny had refused to say anything, and Hilda was trying to guess what could possibly have happened to make a well brought up girl behave in such a fashion.

While she was still looking down at Jenny, Aunt Judith came in and went quickly to Hilda's side. "What is it?" she whispered, anxiously. "Is something wrong?" "Oh, for heaven's sake!" Jenny rolled over and glared up at her aunt. "Do you have to come fussing in here on tiptoe as though I was a corpse or something?" "Jenny!" Aunt Judith said with mixed relief and disapproval. Jenny looked sulky. "I'm sorry. But I do wish you'd all just go away and leave me alone."

Aunt Judith turned to Hilda. "Is she really all right? I—I mean there were no other bad effects?" "Nothing," Hilda said. "Well," Judith Russell looked grimly at Jenny. "I have something to say—"

A quick knocking interrupted her and Emily's frightened face appeared around the door. "Mrs. Thorne, Master Addie's sick! Come quick!"

Hopeful That Summit Meet Will Develop

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has told Soviet Premier Khrushchev he hopes developments at the Geneva disarmament conference can lead to a summit meeting by June 1.

The United States and its Western allies reportedly are considering short-range disarmament proposals which they hope the Soviet Union might accept quickly at Geneva, thus providing a basis for a summit meeting in May. Included is a proposal banning transfer of nuclear weapons to other nations.

Kennedy's views were expressed Sunday in a 1,000-word note to Khrushchev rejecting the premier's second proposal that heads of the 18 nations involved open the Geneva talks March 14. The President, who wants the talks opened at the foreign ministers level, told Khrushchev that to have a heads of government meeting at the beginning of the conference "would be to begin with the wrong end of the problem."

Kennedy added the hope that "developments in the conference and internationally would make it useful to arrange for the personal participation of the heads of government before June 1."

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, who conferred with Kennedy by telephone Friday when the President was drafting his reply to Khrushchev, also rejected the Soviet premier's bid for March summit talks. British officials said that Macmillan's reply, like Kennedy's repeated the view that the conference should open at the foreign ministers level.

Kennedy firmly rejected Khrushchev's contention that possible U. S. resumption of atmospheric nuclear testing would be an aggressive act. He said it was strange that the Soviet Union, which broke the truce on atmospheric testing last fall, should now accuse the United States of aggression.

The Geneva conference is being held at the request of the United Nations. The 18 nations include five Western allies, five from the Communist bloc, and eight avowedly neutral countries.

Representatives of the five Western nations — the United States, Britain, Canada, France and Italy — have been meeting here for two weeks to make plans for the Geneva talks.

The five Western allies have been discussing several things which might be offered at Geneva. If the communist negotiators agree to some or all, it might pave the way to a meeting of the heads of government some time in May to tackle the thornier problems.

Among the proposals for priority consideration under discussion are these:

1. An agreement under which the nuclear powers—the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France—would agree not to transfer nuclear weapons or the capacity to manufacture them to any other country.
2. An agreement on military uses of outer space.
3. Possible designation of a limited area for international inspection of military forces which might serve as a pilot project for future worldwide inspection.
4. Negotiation of a non-aggression pact between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Warsaw Pact nations.

Other Officials Are Disqualified

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today's Arkansas Supreme Court decision invalidating state printing contracts held by a company headed by a state official "also disqualifies some other officials" from state contracts.

The high court upheld Pulaski Chancery Court's decision throwing out 15 contracts held by Parkin from the Communist bloc, and Harry Parkin, a member of the state Highway Commission.

Faubus refused to elaborate on the statement but said, "I'm sure there will be a number of persons interested" in the decision.

The governor said he had talked to Parkin about the possibilities the decision holds and that he, which might be offered at Geneva. If the communist negotiators

U. S. Would Welcome a Working Plan

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—Hugh Gaitskell said today President Kennedy would prefer a workable agreement for a nuclear test ban with Moscow rather than going ahead with a new series of American atmospheric explosions. Gaitskell heads the British Labor party.

He said the United States will withhold its hand if the Soviet Union accepts an effective and safeguarded agreement to stop testing. Gaitskell made these comments to newsmen upon his return from the United States, where he had private discussions with Kennedy.

With Britain's acquiescence, the United States is preparing to conduct atmospheric nuclear explosions on Christmas Island. This mid-Pacific island is a British possession.

Gaitskell said Kennedy has not yet reached a final decision about setting off these blasts and obviously was reluctant to test.

"I am sure he would much prefer to get a cast-iron agreement with Russia," Gaitskell said.

The United States began preparing for a new round of atmospheric blasts after the Soviet Union conducted a series of such explosions last autumn.

How Arkansas Lawmakers Voted

WASHINGTON (AP)—How Arkansas members of Congress were recorded as voting on recent roll calls:

House

On passage, 251-144, of bill to raise limit on national debt temporarily to $300 billion, an increase of $2 billion: For — Harris, Mills, Norrell, Trimble. Against — Alford, Gathings.

Asks $1 Billion

many and obscure causes of this affliction of five million Americans.

Specific proposals to further the "group practice" plan will come later this session. Smaller communities will get priority in the loans to encourage general practitioners and specialists to pool their skills and facilities. Nonprofit and cooperative groups also will get preference, but private profit-making ventures will also qualify.

Both children and adults would benefit from the mass vaccination plan, if state and local programs are launched which qualify for federal aid.

Besides standing ready to pay for the shots of some 25 million tots under five, Kennedy said, the government would make matching grants to help finance local administrative and operating costs.

The administration bill, he said, also will contain authority for vaccinations against any other disease for which vaccines may be developed. There are hopes for a measles vaccine.

Kennedy renewed his request of three weeks ago for a 10-year program of federal matching grants for the building of 40 new medical and dental colleges and the granting of four-year scholarships to thousands of needy medical students.

But the No. 1 item on today's list was what Kennedy termed the "gap in our self-financed, contributory social insurance system" hospital, nursing home, clinical and visiting nurse care for all men and women of 65 or more who are eligible for Social Security benefits.

His chances have not been rated high this session. But administration officials professed to see hope that increasing pressure from voters would bring action before Congress members go home to face the voters next fall.

Kennedy hit at both the favorite arguments of his opponents—that the plan would lead to "socialized medicine" and that private health plans can meet the need.

"Today, only about half of our aged population has any health insurance of any kind—and most of these have insufficient coverage," Kennedy said.

"This program of course would not interfere in any way with the freedom of choice of doctor, hospital or nurse. It would not specify in any way the kind of medical or health care or treatment to be provided," he added.

The increased Social Security costs, under Kennedy's plan, have been estimated at $1.06 billion in the first year after the start of the health benefits on Oct. 1, 1963.

This would be more than covered by an increase in the Social Security tax of 1/4 of 1 per cent on employers and wage earners on Jan. 1, 1963. That tax is now 3 per cent but is scheduled to rise—irrespective of the health plan—to 3 per cent next January 1. The two boosts would bring the tax to 3 per cent, and it would be levied—if Congress approves the health bill—on the first $5,200 of income instead of the first $4,800.

McClellan Controls Urban Bill

Arkansans in Washington
By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., carried a majority of the Senate and most of the committee chairmen with him when he fought off a move by the Kennedy Administration to take away from his committee the proposal to set up an Urban Affairs Department.

As chairman of the Government Operations Committee, McClellan indignantly objected to what he termed a violation of orderly procedure in the Senate, "a regrettable and unworthy course."

The situation, highly charged with politics, came when a sudden move was made to take the proposal from McClellan's committee—which already had conducted hearings on it—for an immediate Senate vote.

What the administration apparently sought to do was to get a vote in each house of Congress on the matter in order to put some Republican senators and representatives on the spot for 1963 and 1964.

The move was necessitated by the fact that the House was to vote on the proposal next day and was certain to beat it. So this was the only way to get a Senate vote—discharge the committee and bring it up for debate and vote.

But McClellan—who strenuously opposes the idea of creating an Urban Affairs Department—vigorously opposed the move to discharge his committee from further responsibility. This forced a vote on a motion to discharge—rather than a vote on approving or disapproving of the proposal itself.

On this vote the Senate stood back of McClellan, 58 to 42. Of the 16 chairmen of Senate standing committees, 13 voted with McClellan—thus heeding this warning that "there will be other chairmen who—and other days and other proposed legislation—will face this same danger, this same challenge. Do this thing today and it will be just the beginning."

At any rate, the Senate let McClellan keep control and the next day the House killed it.

There were those who said that while the Senate thus zealously guarded tradition and orderly procedure, there were several senators just as happy not to be forced to vote on the proposal itself.

Southerners, of course, were virtually unanimously opposed to the President's proposal since he had said that if the new department were created he planned to appoint Robert C. Weaver, a Negro, to head it.

Congratulations on his winning fight, McClellan commented, "I didn't do anything—my friends did it all."

Rep. E. C. Gathings, D-Ark., is sending out his annual questionnaire to several thousand of his constituents, seeking their views on some of the issues of the day. He starts out with a couple of toughies. They are:

"Do you favor balancing the budget even though it could mean the elimination of some of the federal services now provided or being proposed?"

"Do you approve of an all-out effort to be the first nation to place a man on the moon although such an effort would entail the expenditure of several billion dollars?"

He also devotes a couple to the proposal for this country to purchase $100 million of UN Bonds.

First Gathings asked if his constituents favor purchase of the bonds to help pay off debts incurred by the U. N. in the Congo. Then he asks whether the constituents would favor buying the bonds "if the failure to do so could or would mean the collapse and bring the tax to 3 per cent, and it would be levied—if Congress approves the health bill—on the first $5,200 of income instead of the first $4,800.

Algers Rebels

die-hard European opponents of Algerian independence, French Premier Michel Debre ordered French military commanders in Algeria to deploy reserve forces through the major cities swept by waves of terrorist killings.

Debre reportedly ordered commanders to deploy forces which had been held in readiness for any attempt by the Secret Army Organization of European settlers to overthrow the government.

Thirty-seven persons were killed Monday and 49 wounded in Algerian cities. In Algiers alone 22 died.

The government seemed helpless to stop the killings, mostly of Moslems shot by European gunmen.

Authorities sent a battalion of infantry and three squadrons of Mobile Guardsmen—about 1,000 men—into the heart of Algiers Monday. Soldiers lined the Rue Michelet, a street of shops and cafes where Europeans strolled despite shots and speeding ambulances.

Russia, U. S. to Exchange Telecasts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union are reported to be arranging for an exchange next month of simultaneous filmed telecasts by President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev.

Informants said Monday the tentative date for the exchange is March 24 or 25. They said each leader would make a 15-minute statement, followed by translation, which would be shown in the other country.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said "there are no present arrangements" for such programs.

Other sources, however, said Salinger reached agreement in principle on such a trade with his Soviet counterpart, Mikhail Kharlamov, when the two met in Paris last month.

Presentation of the American viewpoint behind the Iron Curtain, including statements by U. S. leaders, has been a longtime U. S. objective which has met with limited success so far. Kennedy was interviewed last November by Izvestia editor Alexei I. Adzhubei, Khrushchev's son-in-law. The interview was published in the Soviet government newspaper.

While the Kennedy-Khrushchev exchange was described as a matter between the White House and the Kremlin, it was understood that details have been discussed at the current State Department talks with a Soviet delegation on renewing the U. S.-Soviet cultural exchange agreement for another two years.

The new cultural agreement, at its present stage of negotiation, was said to provide for appearances of high public figures on radio or television either in person or recorded. That 2001ip.b. Khrushchev exchange would be taped or filmed.

The general cultural exchange accord for 1962-63, like its predecessor, is expected to cover a liquidation of the world organization.

Other questions deal with the debt limit increase, a Cuban embargo, a tax bill and the President's trade program.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., has placed in the Congressional Record—thus preserving it for posterity—a recent speech by Lloyd Godley, manager of the Arkansas Planter's Production Credit Association, at Osceola, Ark., dealing with government and democratic concepts of government.

Fulbright commended the speech to his colleagues.

Ohio State Is Plotting for Tourney Title

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ohio State, the nation's only undefeated major basketball team, has disposed of all its immediate business in the Big Ten and today began plotting for a return bout against Cincinnati in the NCAA championship.

The powerful Buckeyes, with two-time All-American Jerry Lucas scoring 27 points, clinched the Big Ten title and along with it a berth in the NCAA tournament Monday night by outclassing Iowa 72-62 at Iowa City. John Havlicek added 24 points to the Buckeyes' cause.

Now Ohio State's main interest will be to root Cincinnati home in the Missouri Valley conference and thus set up another shot against the Bearcats for the national championship. Last year Cincinnati whipped Ohio State, 70-65, in overtime, in the NCAA final. The Buckeyes have been smarting ever since.

Kentucky likewise apparently gained a berth in the NCAA tournament by nailing down second place in the Southeastern Conference with a 63-60 victory over Auburn.

Mississippi State whipped Tulane, 83-62, and continued to roll toward the SEC championship. But State has indicated it won't play in the NCAA tournament because of integration. Unless the Bulldogs change their minds, Kentucky gets the NCAA spot.

Kansas State and Colorado, both chasing for the Big Eight title, scored easy victories. Kansas State turned back Iowa State, 69-54, while the Buffaloes toppled Missouri, 63-58.

Colorado remains in front with an 11-0 record, while Kansas State shows a 10-1 mark. They meet Saturday, and if Colorado wins, it's just about over.

Kansas State is ranked No. 3 in the current Associated Press poll, behind Ohio State and Cincinnati. Kentucky is No. 4, Mississippi State No. 5, Bradley No. 6 and Colorado No. 9.

Loyola of Chicago and Providence, both with berths in the National Invitation Tournament, rolled to victories. Loyola humiliated Washington of St. Louis, 103-80, and Providence had no trouble with Fairfield, 88-65.

Western Kentucky, the Ohio Valley Conference NCAA representative, turned back Eastern Tennessee 77-66, and Creighton, an NCAA at-large entry, toppled North Dakota State 84-54.

Mississippi, Georgia, Florida and Alabama all recorded Southeastern Conference victories. Ole Miss polished off Louisiana State 74-68; Georgia edged Vanderbilt 71-69; Florida dropped Georgia Tech 28-75, in overtime, and Alabama came from behind to beat Tennessee 71-70.

Northwestern coasted to a 71-67 triumph over Michigan State in a Big Ten game. Marquette defeated St. Louis University 80-74 and Oklahoma City squeezed past North Texas State 72-68.

Rook Out of NCAA Playoffs

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Jerry Rook, Arkansas State's star forward who won't be able to compete in the NCAA playoffs because he's a freshman, scored 38 points in leading State to an 89-72 basketball victory over Memphis Christian Brother Monday night.

Rook tied the school's record of 15 free throws in one game and his 38-point production was only three points shy of a one-game school mark.

Arkansas State will be host for an NCAA district tournament March 9-10. But the NCAA doesn't allow freshmen to compete in its tournaments, this will seriously hamper the Indians.

Bill Tougaw scored 22 points for Christian Brothers Monday night.

Tragedy Is Averted at Oaklawn

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A tragedy was averted in the eighth race at Oaklawn Park Monday when three jockeys leaped from their galloping mounts to rescue a fellow rider whose horse had fallen on him at the finish line.

Jockey Eugene Curry was trapped in the mud under his horse, Myrtle's Boy, who lost his footing in the mud.

Jockeys Howard Craig, Larney Hansford and Calvin Stone jumped from their mounts as they came by and pulled Curry from under the writhing horse.

"Curry wasn't even scratched," said J. Sweney Grant, Oaklawn general manager. "He was awfully lucky." Grant said the horse wasn't hurt, either.

Craig's horse, Telegrafo, finished third, and the rest were out of the money.

Marion H. Van Berg's Mr. M.H. put on a stretch drive to win the $3,500 feature race Monday, beating W. Hal Bishop's Mt. Olivet by three lengths. E. K. Carey's Mama Mac was third, a length and a half farther back.

Mr. M. H. was second rounding the last turn, but he moved up quickly in the stretch to overtake the tiring leader, Leadstealer, who finished fifth. Severn, the sixth-place finisher, was coupled with Mr. M. H. in the betting.

Jockey Calvin Stone drove the winner over the six furlongs of Muddy track in 1:13 flat. He paid $5.60.

A crowd of 6,040 bet $340,105 on the eight races.

Irvyn Gushen's Bumpy Road makes his second comeback attempt of the season today running against a capacity field in the featured $4,000 Hot Springs Auto Dealers purse.

Once hailed as an outstanding sprinter, the 7-year-old gelding had been out of action since August, 1960, as a result of disabilities. He started last week and finished ninth, flogging badly after a good early effort.

Bumpy Road, a son of Andy's Glory and Little Jeep, is entered in today's 5½-furlong claiming event with a price tag of $15,000. Others entered range from that amount to $12,000, making the race one of the highest-priced claiming events ever offered at Oaklawn. Cable King will carry topweight of 116 points.

Fear Fallout
CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—The Central Arkansas Mold Producers Association was told here Saturday fear of radioactive contamination has caused a drop in milk consumption. Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., said despite a population increase last year, milk product consumption declined two per cent.

Defending Title Holder Is Ousted

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Defending champion Nettleton was ousted in the first round as the Class A state basketball tournament opened at Barton Coliseum Monday with three first round games.

Drew Central, Bentonville and Clinton took first-round victories. Three more first-round bouts were scheduled today. Quarterfinals begin Wednesday night.

Clinton beat Nettleton 61-53 Monday after coming from behind in the second half on strong performances by Roger McCutcheon and Darrell Olier.

Bentonville beat Lavaca 45-41 as Steve Couthie of Bentonville hit four free throws in the last 32 seconds to break a 41-41 tie.

Drew Central clipped Tuckerman 49-46 in overtime on free throws by Lee Gibson and DeWayne Thurman. The score was tied 44-44 at the end of regulation playing time.

Today's schedule pitted Nashville against Brinkley, Manila against Monticello and Sheridan against Stephens.

Nettleton led Clinton 28-27 at halftime but after the intermission, Clinton's Roger McCutcheon and Darrell Olier opened up from the outside and sent Clinton into a 10-point lead.

Nettleton applied a full-court press in an attempt to regain the lead, but fouled in the process and Clinton raced away at the free throw line. McCutcheon scored 17 points and Olier 13. Junior Higgins led Nettleton with 29 points and was the tournament's high scorer of the day.

Jack Jordan scored 17 points in leading Drew Central past Tuckerman in overtime. Wally Seward hit 13 for Tuckerman.

Bentonville led Lavaca most of the way, but its lead was cut to two points late in the game. Couthie engineered a freeze and stalled for a minute, then drew two fouls in the last 30 seconds and made all four free throws. Couthie scored 16 points and John Rollow scored 18 for Bentonville. Ronnie Dean led Lavaca with 16.

McClellan Against U. S. Domination
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The fact that Arkansas' largest office building is manned by 2,000 government employees is, to Sen. John McClellan, D-Ark., an indication of the domination of the federal government over the people.

McClellan spoke Sunday at dedication ceremonies for Little Rock's new federal building, a giant, gleaming structure that occupies a whole city block between the downtown section and the state Capitol.

The senator called the building "a treasure any city would be proud of." But he added that the government "has given us nothing we do not deserve" and said Arkansas earned the building.

He used the $13 million cost of the building as an indication of how the cost of operating the government has risen since Little Rock's first federal building was constructed in 1881.

The cost of operation has gone up 2,000 per cent, he said, and the national debt has increased 1,400 per cent.

"I do not necessarily view all this with alarm," he said, "but I am seriously concerned with the burden of expenditures rising faster than the population and the gross national product and seeing no end to federal indebtedness."

He said we must not set standards too high to meet, then pass on our debts to our children.

The new building houses 20 agencies with 2,000 employees, he said, and this is indicative "of the domination the federal government exercises over us, its intrusion into state affairs and the central power now in the hands of the government in Washington."

Gov. Orval E. Faubus said the building was another sign of progress in Arkansas. He said there are no finer citizens than those who serve their fellow man in federal service. Also on the platform in the building's lobby were Reps. Wilbur Mills, Oren Harris and Dale Alford and Mayor Werner Knoop. A crowd of 300 attended the dedication.

Lincoln Gets Past Timbo in B Meet
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Ronnie Cantrell pumped in 30 points to lead Lincoln past Timbo 63-38 in the Class B state basketball tournament in Barton Coliseum here Monday.

In other first round games, Oden broke away from Altheimer in the fourth period and took a 78-69 victory, and Casa whipped Dyess, 68-53.

In today's first round games Sparkman meets Hughes, Marmaduke plays Jessieville and Palestine meets Scanton.

Cantrell's output made him high scorer of the day. Jesse Morrison paced Timbo with 14 points.

District 5 champion Casa had little trouble eliminating Dyess in the tournament opener. John Coates, Ronnie Hubbard and Ronnie May counted 22, 15, and 15 points respectively for Casa. Keith Harris and Jerry Vaughn hit 13 each for Dyess.

Dyess scrambled within eight but Casa clinched it from the points of Casa in the last quarter, free throw line.

Maris Signs With Yanks for $72,000

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—The skyrocketing New York Yankee payroll, highest in the major leagues, reached unprecedented heights today following the signing of Roger Maris to a $72,000 contract for 1962.

With four players earning $50,000 or better and 10 others receiving $20,000 or more, the Yankee payroll is a record $800,000.

The mighty rajah, who hit 61 home runs in '61, for a one-season major league high, received a 96 per cent increase Monday. He was paid $37,500 last year, when he led the American League with 142 runs batted in, 366 total bases and was voted the Most Valuable Player for the second straight time.

The 28-year old left-handed slugger thus becomes the fourth highest salaried player in Yankee history. Joe DiMaggio drew $100,000 a season in 1950 and 1951, Babe Ruth was paid $80,000 a year in 1930 and 1931 and Mickey Mantle reportedly is getting $82,000 this season.

"This easily is the largest payroll in the history of the Yankee organization, or that of any other organization for that matter," said Roy Hamey, the Yankees' general manager. "We are happy to pay it. The Yankees enjoyed a good year in 1961—both financially and artistically—and the players were responsible. I hope we have an even better year in '62 and we will gladly pay the fellows accordingly."

"I'll take them as they come," he said. "I don't believe in counting my chickens before they are hatched."
